

FRONTIER TALKS SCHEDULE 2026

No.	Topic	Date	Speakers
1.	Iran's geopolitical objectives in Central Asia	February 2026	Nargiza Umarova
2.	Geopolitics of the "Peaceful Atom"	March 17, 2026	Dilshod Olimov; Shokhmirzo Umarov, specialist at UzAtom agency
3.	The State of Global Terrorism	March 24, 2026	Prof. Rohan Gunaratna, Head of the International Centre for Political Violence and Terrorism Research (ICPVTR) at Nanyang Technological University in Singapore
4.	Central Asia in China's foreign policy	March 26, 2026	Zhang Jian, specialist of the University of China Foreign Affairs University
5.	Conceptual challenges in Central Asian studies	April 2026	Dr. Farkhod Tolipov, director of the non-governmental scientific institution "Bilim Karvoni", PhD in Philology

6.	Based on “The Art of the Deal” by Donald J. Trump	April, 2026	Prof. Dr. Azamat Seitov
7.	The U.S. in a changing world order	April 2026	Ulugbek Ishankhodjaev
8.	Political Leadership, International Relations, and China’s Development Based on Xi Jinping’s Speeches	May 2026	Prof. Dr. Azamat Seitov
9.	Migration issues	May 2026	Matthew Heneghan, doctoral researcher in the School of Social and Political Sciences at the University of Glasgow
10.	U.S. foreign policy priorities (medium term)	June 2026	Ulugbek Ishankhodjaev
11.	India’s interests in the North–South corridor via Afghanistan	July 2026	Nargiza Umarova
12.	Global currency? Renminbi internationalisation	September 11, 2026	Dr. Frank Maracchione, postdoctoral researcher at the University of Kent

13.	Public Administration and Türkiye's Development Based on Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's Speeches	September 2026	Prof. Dr. Azamat Seitov
14.	Ideology vs pragmatism	September 2026	Ulugbek Ishankhodjaev
15.	Mapping Global China	October 2026	Maria Adele Carrai, Professor at Oxford University
16.	Poland's transport connectivity potential	October 2026	Nargiza Umarova
17.	Based on Narendra Modi's "Exam Warriors"	December 2026	Prof. Dr. Azamat Seitov
18.	Political processes in the U.S. in 2026	December 2026	Ulugbek Ishankhodjaev